

24.9.20 LO: To write the beginning of a story

Using the picture above for inspiration I'd like you to write the beginning of a story.

The beginning includes who your main character is (what is their name; how old are they; what their character is like and something interesting about them - hobby or skill) and where they are (use your senses for this part - sight, hearing, taste, touch and smell) and that's it.

The beginning of the story makes your reader want to continue reading - can you do that?
