

Science

Look at the attached powerpoint and then label the different layers of soil and give examples of the types of materials you may find in each.

