

Year 3 - English Extended learning - 10-5-21

Combine the two simple sentences using conjunctions to make one more interesting sentence.

Here are some conjunctions you could use, and remember they can go at either the beginning or middle of the sentence - after, although, as, before, since, while, but, because.

1. I have two scruffy dogs. I have one ginger cat.
2. I like to watch football. I have hurt my leg so can't play football.
3. I wanted to go swimming. The swimming pool was closed.
4. I took my puppy for a walk. It was raining.
5. I wanted to go to the park. Mum wouldn't let me go to the park.
6. I like basketball. I am quite short.
