Hard Work and Celebrations

Well done to all Year 6, they have been brilliant throughout this week working extremely hard on their end of KS2 tests. Mrs Rodney is very proud of them.

Mrs Rodney and Mr Lindsay's Weekly Challenge

Science Challenge

When humans burn wood, coal or gasoline the waste products that result from the burning can result in Sulphur and nitrogen compounds being added to the air. They are carried up to the level of the clouds and become incorporated into rain drops. The rain that contains such raindrops can cause changes to the water of lakes and rivers so that the fish die.

What is the common name for this destructive sort of rain?

Maths Challenge

True or false?

$1/20$  of a metre = 20cm

$4/100$  of 2 metres = 40cm

English Challenge

EYFS and Key Stage 1 = Can you think of 3 words with the suffix '-ful-'?

Key Stage 2 = Write a haiku. A haiku is a type of poem with 3 lines. Lines 1 and 3 have 5 syllables. Here's an example:
