Feeling strange I awoke suddenly.

Without disturbing anyone I crept out of the tent.

Although it was midnight I could see the moonlit woods.

Treading carefully I walked towards the trees.

Curiously I listened and heard a faint humming noise.

After a flash of light a saucer shape appeared in the dark sky.

Silent as smoke the ship hovered above the ground.

Slowly it lowered.

When it finally touched the ground the ship left deep scorch marks on the earth.

With a loud creak a ladder slid down to the ground.

Terrified I could not move a muscle.
