

Year 5 English Homework – 15th October

Please add missing punctuation to this passage, and write it in your homework book.

the blue rocket sailed peacefully through the emptiness of space it made no noise at all even though it was bustling with astronauts aboard they were carrying out many different experiments and tests in order to learn more about this new planet they had discovered did it have life was is a potential home for humans they were hoping to find out all of humanity depended on them ever since the asteroid was discovered the one that would hit earth in 132 years and completely destroy it that fate of the world hung in the balance and humans had met their greatest challenge of them all