

Adverbial Phrases - Write up in homework books using best cursive handwriting

Adverbial phrases tell us when, where or how something happened. For example:

(When) Towards the end of the day, Roo starts to get crotchety.

(Where) At the back of the cave, two eyes gleamed brightly.

(How) With a shout of excitement, the pirates spotted the treasure.

Have a go at inserting an adverbial phrase to give more information. Remember you can say when, where or how the event happened.

....., Mrs Marney sank onto the sofa.

....., Mrs Read sipped her tea.

....., the builders put the last brick into place.

....., Mum shouted for the children to come downstairs.

Now complete these sentences with a suitable event:

At the first light of dawn, .....

Silently, with a look of mischief on her face, .....

Up on the shelf, just out of reach, .....

With a shriek and a hiss, .....

Now have a go at writing your own sentences to describe the following events from Goldilocks:

When Goldilocks went into the three bears' house (how/when did she break in?)

.....
When she ate Baby Bear's porridge (how/where did she eat it?)

.....
When Baby Bear noticed his chair was broken (how/when did he notice?)

.....
Goldilocks running from the bears (How/where did she run?)

.....
