

The witches met Macbeth twice and made predictions about what was going to happen to him in the future.

Some predictions were that:

1. He would become king of Scotland
2. He will be safe until trees move towards him
3. He should beware Macduff

Write a letter as if you were Macbeth (in first person) to Lady Macbeth telling her all about your meetings with the witches.

Describe what they looked like, what they told you and how they made you feel.

Here's an example of how you might begin your letter...

Dear Lady Macbeth,

Today, as I was walking with Banquo, three strange witches came towards me, cackling and giggling. As you can imagine, I was quite surprised and bewildered. The tallest witch, with a hooked nose, spoke to me first. Surprisingly, she said...