Children are to write a biography for a person of their choice.

Preferably someone they look up to. Maybe an athlete, author or person on TV/film.

Below is a checklist of items that need to be included in their writing.

CHECKLIST : BIOGRAPHY/AUTOBIOGRAPHY

Features of a Biography/Autobiography	Text
Is it clear who the writing is about?
Does the introduction make you want to read on?
Are capital letters used for names of people and places?
Is it written in the correct person eg. First (autobiography) or third (biography)?
Does the text give you factual information about the person and events?
Are the person's feelings and emotions included in the text?
Does it keep the reader interested - using well chosen words ?
Does it have a satisfactory conclusion/ending ?
