

Year 5 English Homework – 13th May – Mr Lindsay's Group

Relative Clauses

Add a relative clause to each of the sentences below.

Remember, a relative clause must begin with a relative pronoun – which, that, who, whose

Be sure to think about where in the sentence a relative clause could be added – sometimes there are several possible locations.

Examples:

- The boy walked down the corridor, which was very dark.
- Mary, who was in Year 4, enjoyed playing with her little brother.

1. The snake was slithering through the grass.
2. Austin loved to eat ice cream on the beach.
3. It took a long time for the paint to dry.
4. The rain was falling loudly on the roof of the shed.
5. The cake is baking in the oven.
6. Jessica's favourite drink is chocolate milk.