Academy Office Break In

Thank you for your support following the break in and damage to the front of the Academy Catchment area and office. The Police have visited us and have removed our CCTV footage and various incriminating evidence. We hope they will be successful in apprehending the criminals. Please bear with us whilst we repair the considerable damage and tidy up.

Thank you Mrs Seymour

Hinduism Assembly

On Friday 24th May we were visited by Nabhi who shared some interesting facts about Hindu beliefs and practices. The whole school enjoyed an assembly in which we heard all about the Hindu religion - we even sang along with Nabhi as he played the manjeera. Later in the day, years 1, 3 and 5 took part in workshops to deepen their understanding of Hinduism. We are looking forward to welcoming Nabhi back in October to celebrate Diwali.

EYFS Reminder

It is important for your child to practise their keywords daily. The words are becoming more challenging; please ensure you practise regularly at home. The children are tested every Friday.
