

The /sh/ sound

This week we have been learning more about the sea and the creatures that live in it, and we have thought about the /sh/ sound at the beginning of shells.

Ask your child to colour in all the pictures below where they can hear the /sh/ sound, either at the beginning or at the end of the word. Talk together about any other things that you can think of that have this sound. Where in the word does the /sh/ sound occur?
