

This is your chance to show off! I want you to do a little writing about this picture and show as many of these features as you can in your writing. Think about where the boy is, what his name is, what time of day is it, what is he doing, why and how is he feeling.

Grammatical feature
capital letters
full stops
commas
adjectives
adverbials
pronouns
prepositions
conjunctions
cursive handwriting

Here's an example about my dog Ted:

Early in the morning, we quietly let blond, fluffy Ted out into the garden so he can have a sniff around.

I have used capital letters (Early and Ted), a full stop (at the end), adverbials including a fronted adverbial with a comma (early in the morning, quietly) and adjectives (blond, fluffy).

Blue and green – write 3 sentences.

Orange and red – write 5 sentences.

Yellow and purple – write 7 sentences.
