

We have been looking at expanded noun phrases this week. For example - The dog could become The ferocious, large, white dog. (it must have at least one adjective but three is the magic number).

Blue and green - In your English homework books create one sentence about each of these pictures including expanded noun phrases.

Orange and red - In your English homework books create one sentence about each of these pictures including expanded noun phrases and conjunctions.

Yellow and purple - In your English homework books create one sentence about each of these pictures including expanded noun phrases, conjunctions and adverbials.

