

Help!

Can anybody tell me, please,

A bit about the thing

With seven legs and furry knees,

Four noses and a wing?

Oh, what has prickles on its chin,

What's yellow, green and blue,

And what has soft and slimy skin?

Oh, tell me, tell me do.

And tell me, what has polka dots

On every other ear,

What ties its tail in twenty knots,

What weeps a purple tear?

Oh, what is growling long and low

And please, has it been fed?

I think I really better know.....

It's sitting on my head!
