Below are the pictures showing the story you will be writing about (they take you up to a big 'unfortunately' moment - you will need to decide how it ends!) but for today, I'd like you to complete a story plan so you can think about how you feel your version story will go. Use the story planner below these pictures to help guide your thoughts.

In your home learning book, I'd like you to complete your story plan - the pictures take us up to the conflict phase, so you will need to decide how the story ends. On the other elements just think about key words or phrases you want to use - the adjectives that describe what the pictures show, the adverbials that tell you when, where and how things are happening and what the characters might say using their senses (sight, hearing, smell, touch and taste).
