

English

Combine the two simple sentences using conjunctions (you could use the table below) to make one more interesting sentence, and write the full sentences in your home learning book.

As a challenge try to also add an adverbial to each of your interesting sentences.

1. I have two scruffy dogs. I have one ginger cat.
2. I like to watch football. I have hurt my leg so can't play football.
3. I wanted to go swimming. The swimming pool was closed.
4. I took my puppy for a walk. It was raining.
5. I wanted to go to the park. Mum wouldn't let me go to the park.
6. I like basketball. I am quite short.

for	after	if
whenever	since	nor
yet	as	before
because	and	though
while	or	so
so that	although	but