

Subject, verb and object

Can you identify the subject, verb and object in a sentence?

The subject is usually the thing or person who is carrying out an action. The object is the thing or person that is involved in an action, but does not carry it out.

The girl threw a conker.

subject verb object

In the following sentences, underline the subject in green, the verb in purple and the object in orange:

Daniel laid the table.

Marcia counted her chocolate coins.

My Dad painted the fence.

The children jumped up and down on the trampoline.

The dog barked at the postman.

The baby smiled at the old man.

My Mum baked some very tasty cakes.

Harry painted a picture.

My teacher opened the door.

I flew my kite.

Answers: Daniel laid the table. / Marcia counted her chocolate coins. / My Dad painted the fence. / The children jumped up and down on the trampoline. / The dog barked at the postman. / The baby smiled at the old man. / My Mum baked some very tasty cakes. / Harry painted a picture. / My teacher opened the door. / I flew my kite.