1.30-2.30	History We know that William the conqueror built the first castles in England. Did you know that he ordered a motte and bailey castle to be built in Warwick in 1068? My friend Pip went to see this castle. Go through the PowerPoint to learn all about his visit. To see the different rooms for yourself, just like Pip use this link. https://my.matterport.com/show/?m=HCmSPZ4meT4 You can zoom in and out and turn the picture round to see different angles. Ask your adult to help you. There are many rooms to visit, just click on a room at the bottom and have your own tour of the castle. Which room did you like best? Why? Tell your grown-up.
2.30-3.00	Handwriting – Long ladder letters The letters l, l, t, u, j and y are called long ladder letters. That's because we make an upward movement when we write them. Practise your long ladder letters on the worksheet. Sit correctly – say our poem One, two, three, four Feet flat on the floor. Five, six, seven, eight Backs up straight. Nine ten This is the way I hold my pencil.
